

Name:

Date:

1. David has two albums of stamps. In the first album he has 149 stamps and in the second one only 36 stamps. How many stamps does David have?

Calculation:

The answer:

2. In front of an airport there are two big parking lots. On the first lot there are 247 cars, and on the second one there are 39 less cars than on the first. How many cars are on the second parking lot?

Calculation:

The answer:

3. In the morning the shop assistant filled the counters with 164 bananas. In the afternoon, when they were closing the shop, there were only 120 bananas on the counters. How many bananas have they sold?

Calculation:

The answer: